Numb. 12933.

The London Gazette,

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 27, to Tuesday October 30, 1787.

Whitehall, October 30.

THIS Morning one of His Majesty's Messengers arrived at the Office of the Marquis of Carmarthen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with the Declaration and Counter Declaration, of which the following are Translations, which were respectively signed and exchanged at Versailles, on the 27th Instant, by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, and the Right Honourable William Eden, His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, on the Part of His Majesty, and by the Count de Montmorin, His Most Christian Majesty's Minister and Secretary of State, having the Department of Foreign Affairs, on the Part of His Most Christian Majesty.

DECLARATION.

THE Events which have taken Place in the Republic of the United Provinces appearing no longer to leave any Subject of Discussion, and still less of Contest, between the two Courts, the Undersigned are authorized to ask, whether it is the Intention of His Most Christian Majesty to carry into Effect the Notification made on the 16th of September last, by His Most Christian Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, which, by announcing that Succours would be given in Holland, has occasioned the Naval Armaments on the Part of His Majesty; which Armaments have become reciprocal.

If the Court of Versailles is disposed to explain itself on this Subject, and upon the Conduct to be adopted towards the Republic, in a Manner conformable to the Desire, which has been expressed on both Sides, to preserve the good Understanding between the two Courts; and it being also understood, at the same Time, that there is no View of Hostility towards any Quarter, in consequence of what has passed; His Majesty, always anxious to concur in the friendly Sentiments of His Most Christian Majesty, would agree with Him, that the Armaments, and in general all warlike Preparations, should be discontinued on each Side, and that the Navies of the two Nations should be again placed upon the Footing of the Peace Establishment, as it stood on the First of January of the present Year.

Versailles, the 27th of October, 1787.

COUNTER DECLARATION.

THE Intention of His Majesty not being, and never having been, to interfere by Force in the Affairs of the Republic of the United Provinces, the Communication made to the Court of London, on the 16th of last Month, by Monsr. Barthelemy, having had no other Object than to announce to that Court an Intention, the Motives of which no longer exist, especially since the King of Prussia has imparted his Resolution; His Majesty makes no Difficulty to declare, that He will not give any Effect to the Declaration above-mentioned; and that He retains no hostile View towards any Quarter relative to what has passed in Holland. His Majesty, therefore, being desirous to concur with the Sentiments of His Britannick

A Mail will be made up at this Office on the First and Third Wednesday of every Month for the West Indies.

The Course of the Mail will be for Barbadoes, St. Vincent, Grenada, and from thence to St. Kitt's and Jamaica, where, instead of being detained to receive the Answers to all their Letters from the internal Parts of the Island, they will stay but Forty-eight Hours, and return by the Windward Passage to England; and the next Packet will take up the Answers to the Letters delivered by the first.

The Packets will leave at Barbadoes all Letters for the Leeward Islands, which will be conveyed by a Brig to Dominica, Antigua and St. Kitt's, where they will be delivered to the English Packets upon their Arrival from Grenada, and forwarded with the rest to Jamaica and England.

This is a temporary Plan, 'till another upon a larger Scale can be carried into Effect.
